

At the grand opening of the United Bank of Alaska

REFRESHMENTS—During the grand opening of the United Bank of Alaska (Native Bank) in the City of Anchorage, some 400 people came to take part in the festivities. The bank was established from a pool of money from several Native corporations.

PRESIDENT OF CINA—Roy Huhndorf, president of the Cook Inlet Native Association, was one of several hundreds attending the grand opening.

Photos by JEFF RICHARDSON