

Contract Awarded for Bethel Bilingual

WASHINGTON, D. C. — A $109,325 contract has been awarded to the University of Alaska for the Bethel area bilingual program, according to the office of Senator Ted Stevens.

A training course for 18 people will be held June 21 through August 9, headed by Walter Featherly, Bureau of Indian Affairs program director from Juneau.