How to find happiness as a mother-in-law

No reason to be sensitive about being a mother-in-law. There are a lot of happy ones these days.

Like the ones who start the bride and groom out saving—with a gift of U. S. Savings Bonds.

This provides them with the wherewithal for those little emergencies that always seem to crop up with young couples. Or helps them meet the down payment on their first home. A gift of Bonds will tell them you're happy to help.

If it's a bit late for a wedding gift, Bonds make a good way to celebrate grandmotherhood, too. Bonds will grow right along with the new baby. And he'll get back $4 for every $3 you invest if the Bonds are held to maturity.

Millions of Americans help themselves—and others—with U.S. Savings Bonds. And every dollar they invest helps their country spread the freedom word a little farther.

Any way you look at it, U.S. Savings Bonds make a dandy nest egg. And a very happy mother-in-law.
