What Saith The Scriptures

I must say that I never had so close and satisfactory a view of the gospel of salvation as when I have been led to contemplate it in the light of a simple offer on the one side, and a simple acceptance on the other. It is just saying to one and all of us, "There is forgiveness through the blood of My Son; take it," and whoever believes the reality of the offer takes it. It is not in any shape the reward of our own services; it is the gift of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. It is not given because you are worthy to receive it, but because it is a gift worthy of God to bestow.

We are apt to stagger at the greatness of the unmerited offer; we cannot believe it, till we have made up some title of our own. This leads to two mischievous consequences. It keeps alive the presumption of one class of professing Christians, who will still be thinking that it is something in themselves which confers upon them a title to the divine favor. The error of both lies in their looking to themselves when they should be looking to the Savior. "Look unto Me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth." Isa. 45:22.
