

MarkAir reinstates service to Aniak

Fredrick Walker, 3, of Holy Cross, top in photo at right, enjoys flying a balloon with Nickanoff Peterson, 3, of Aniak. MarkAir reinstated jet service to the village earlier this month. Aniak will receive one flight daily, Tuesday through Saturday, leaving Anchorage at 10 a.m. and arriving in Aniak at 12:30 p.m.

The return flight will depart Aniak at 1:05 p.m., arriving in Anchorage at 2:05 p.m. Photos shown were taken last week when MarkAir had its first regular flight to the village after an absence of two years.
