

Seley Corp. wins exporting award

Gov. Steve Cowper recently announced the selection of Wrangell Forest Products, owned by the Seley Corp., as the first recipient of the governor's Exporter of the Year Award.

The award, sponsored by the federally appointed District Export Council of Alaska, was presented at a banquet at the Sheraton Anchorage Hotel. Seley Corp. of Wrangell and Ketchikan was among nine Alaska companies nominated for the honor.