

Luke Titus Wins Minto Dog Race

It was Luke Titus, son of Robert Titus in Minto, who mushed his tired dogs to a hard-earned victory in Minto's 18-mile sled dog races held during the Minto Carnival last weekend.

Luke used the team of Wilson Titus, of Minto, a veteran musher who for years consistently took racing crowns throughout Interior Alaska.

Wilson this year says, "I'm retiring. I'm going to leave this racing business to younger men."

The young man he chose to drive his team did well.
