

Tuntutuliak Holds Election Of Officers

TUNTUTULIAK NEWS

Peter Miller was elected to a second two-year term as President of the village council at an election-meeting held at the B.I.A. School on Oct. 27.

Evan White was elected Vice-President, and James Charles was chosen as Secretary. Nick Lupie, Paul Andrew, and George Miller were elected Council members.

Only Peter Miller and Paul Andrew were members of the incumbent council (other members; Vice-President John Enoch, Secretary Thomas Charlie, and Councilmen Willie Moon Wassilie and Peter Lupie) but all the newly-elected members have served on previous councils except George Miller.

The meeting was called for 5 p.m. but did not get started until 6 p.m. when twenty-nine voting adults and several children were present out of a population of one-hundred-and eighty.

Peter Miller received fourteen votes for President to ten votes for Evan White and five votes for Nick Lupie. For Vice-President Evan White received eighteen votes to eight votes for Paul Andrew and three votes for John Enoch.

James Charles was elected Secretary with sixteen votes to eight votes for George Miller and five votes for Thomas Charlie.

Nick Lupie received eighteen votes for Councilman to seven votes for Paul Andrew and four votes for John Enoch. Paul Andrew was elected Councilman on the next round of balloting with fifteen votes to eight votes for Frank Fox and six votes for Peter Pavila.

Eighteen votes were cast for George Miller for Councilman to seven votes for John Lupie and four votes for Willie Moon Wassilie.
