

Three Villages Get Sheppard Trading Stores

As of 2:00 p.m. November 25, 1974, the villages of Chevak, Pilot Station, and St. Mary's each became the owners of the Sheppard Trading Stores.

The Calista Corporation gave approval for the entire business package which totaled in excess of one million dollars.

The deeds to the stores were officially signed over by Douglas Sheppard in Anchorage to the three village corporations.

The prime negotiators were Lester Wilde, Calista Management Counselor, Timothy Kaganak, Calista Treasurer, and Douglas Sheppard.
