

Ooops!

The Tundra Times really blew it last week when we said the proud and distinguished M/V Pribilof was a "Converted Navy Oiler" when it was actually a support vessel used by the National Marine Fisheries Service prior to its purchase by the Aleut Corporation. We regret the error.