

Lundy joins Indian Health

Alaska Area Native Health Service Director Gerald H. Ivey announced the appointment of Richard E. Lundy as Equal Opportunity Officer.

Born in Sitka and part-Tlingit, Lundy was employed, by the Bureau of Indian Affairs in Juneau before his assignment to PHS and worked in various personnel areas, including three years as coordinator of the EEO program.

"I am confident that we may expect significant contributions from Dick in his role as EEO officer," Ivey said.

Lundy added, "I want to emphasize that there is an EEO program and in order to make it work, it must be an active and positive program that is designed for the benefit of all employees."

Among Lundy's interests is creating old Tlingit designs from researching Tlingit records and customs. An avid hunter and fisherman, Lundy, his wife and children will reside in Anchorage.

RICHARD E. LUNDY