

SCOUTS TO BARROW

Senator Gruening has been informed that the Office of Naval Research has invited the Boy Scouts of America to designate two outstanding scouts to serve as junior scientific aides at the Arctic Research Laboratory at Barrow during July and August of this year.

The laboratory is operated by the ONR and the University of Alaska.