PUBLIC NOTICE

As required by the operating procedures of the Alaska Land Use Council, which was established under the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act (ANILCA), the Council invites the public to submit, for its consideration, projects and issues they believe should be considered by the Council. The Council is comprised of federal, state and native land and resource decision-makers in Alaska. The Council is mandated to conduct cooperative studies, develop programs and procedures for implementing ANILCA, and to advise the federal and state governments on a variety of complex land and resource management issues in Alaska.

In submitting a potential project or issue please include a brief description of the work to be accomplished, the completion date, the anticipated product, and nature of the Council's involvement. The Councilman, after consultation with the Council's Staff Committee, will prepare a recommended work program considering the requirements of ANILCA, projected Council resources, special requests, and recommendations from the public, the Council's Land Use Advisory Committee, and Council members. The proposed work program will be submitted in August to the Council for adoption. Any interested parties having a proposed work program item should submit the information to the Councilman prior to July 31, 1987. Submittals should be sent to either: Robert L. Grogan, State Councilman Designate, Alaska Land Use Council, Division of Governmental coordination, 2800 Denali Street, Suite 700, Anchorage, AK 99503-2709 or Vernon R. Wiggins, Federal Councilman, Alaska Land Use Council, 1800 "C" Street, Suite 100, Anchorage, AK 99501. Anyone having questions regarding the Council's work program may call the State Councilman Designate's Office at (907) 274-3528 or the Federal Councilman's office at (907) 272-3422.
