

Barcott appointed director of APOC

Effective July 2, Jane Barcott will assume the position of acting executive director of the Alaska Public Offices Commission, according to APOC.

Theda Pittman has resigned to assume the position of contract consultant to the commission.

The commission is beginning its search for a new executive director.

Barcott was formerly associate coordinator for conflict of interest issues and has four years experience with the commission.