

Stevens hires Malin Jennings

Sen. Ted Stevens has added former Alaskan reporter Malin Jennings to his staff in Washington, D.C. Jennings will be employed as a press aide, handling TV and radio communications.

Jennings has five years of experience in Alaskan TV and radio news. She was employed most recently as a political reporter for KTUU-TV in Anchorage and has also worked with stations in Fairbanks and Juneau.

Stevens said he's pleased to have Jennings on board and noted that her background in broadcast journalism will be an asset to his office.
