

Native Youth Group Starts In Fairbanks

A Native Youth Group is being formed in Fairbanks by Clara Anderson.

Miss Anderson said the Bureau of Indian Affairs has donated the use of the Arctic Bowl Conference room for the group's organizational meeting at 7 p.m. Monday.

"We would like to see all Alaskan Natives between the ages of 16 and 36 join the group," Miss Anderson says. "We hope to see visitors from outlying areas come to our meetings whenever they are in the Fairbanks area."

More information can be obtained on the group by calling Miss Anderson after 5 p.m. at 452-2517 or writing her at 314 Front St., Graehl.

Also call 452-1056 or 456-7549 if you need transportation during the day, Monday thru Friday.
