

Ex-GIs May Enroll

(Reprint from the Calistemo Erinii "the semi-monthly newsletter of the Calista Corporation")

According to Morris Thompson, Area Director for Bureau of Indian Affairs, people who were in the military service as of March 30 may still have time to enroll. These people are protected by the Soldier's and Sailor's Relief Act, which exempts them from the March 30 deadline.