

IT WAS A VERY GOOD EAR — Billy Killbear, an all-around athlete from Kaktovik, staggered 544 feet 10 inches carrying 18 pounds to take second place in the ear-weight contest.

YUMMY — Eugene Edwine looks a lot hungrier than his wife Martha as they both enter the Mukluk-Eating Contest.

AFTERWARDS — Billy receives minor repairs.

OLYMPICS BEGIN — Edith Tegoseak and Poldine Carlo light the Lamps with some assistance from Peter Solomon, after he won The Race of The Torch.

*It's All Over Now,
But Memories Of Exciting New Games
And Gallant Competitors Linger On*

VICTORY PARTY POOPS OUT — Minto's fairest, Lynette Winfrey, winner of this year's Baby Contest, wonders why her companion doesn't share the excitement of her triumph.

GREASY KID STUFF — Waving arms and sure feet keep Bobby Charlie moving ahead in The Greased Pole Walk.
