

In Memoriam

A well respected and strong force of the Native claims movement, Ahtna leader Walter V. Charley died Oct. 22 at the Crossroads Medical Center. Mr. Charley, 84, was born at Wood Camp Feb. 24, 1908. He is survived by his wife Mamie of Glennallen, his sister Sophie Lincoln of Copper Center, his daughters Myra Wilson of Phoenix; Christine Yazzie, Laura Hobson, and Rose Tyrone all of Anchorage. He leaves behind a stepdaughter, Rina Landall, several grandchildren and many friends and relatives. Visitation was in Anchorage, and his burial was yesterday in Copper Center.