OCTOBER 6-12

Observe with us the National Newspaper Week on October 6-12—and remember us—TUNDRA TIMES

It's the next best thing to a bridge . . . the Trainship "Alaska" . . . newest in the trade and Alaska's only railcar service by self-propelled ship. Cars are carried below deck . . . protected from salt water . . . and inspected regularly en route. At 18 knots, the regular weekly voyage takes 68 hours . . . the fastest railcar service between Alaska

The only rail service to Alaska that coddles your cargo.

and any point in the lower 48. The Trainship "Alaska" is represented by The Man From Alaska Line . . . who will gladly give you more information about this or any part of Alaska Line's total transportation system. Write or call him soon. He'll appreciate the chance to prove that The Man From Alaska Line has a better way to transport almost everything!
