

OEO Official On Alaska Tour

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5—Laurence P. Horan, director of the seven-state western region of the federal Office of Economic Opportunity, arrived in Alaska Monday, September 9, to begin a week-long tour of anti-poverty programs and a series of speeches and conferences.

Monday night, he met with members of the board and staff of the community action agency in Anchorage. The following day, he participated in a conference of representatives of government and anti-poverty agencies on 1967 legislative amendments to the Economic Opportunity Act.

Horan departed Anchorage Wednesday morning to visit Bethel, Mountain Village and Nome. He was due in Kotzebue and Barrow on Thursday, and in Fairbanks, late Friday. On Monday, September 16, he will address the annual meeting of the Alaska State Federation of Labor in Sitka.
