

THE UNIVERSITY OF ALASKA campus near Fairbanks is the scene of extensive construction this summer as building projects totaling $17.5 million are underway. The area at right center of this aerial view is the construction site of a humanities, fine arts, and library complex. Other major projects include an eight-story dormitory and Geophysical Institute Building. (UA PHOTO)