

FNA Backs BIA

At the last general membership meeting the Fairbanks Native Association went on record supporting the BIA in it's attempt to obtain land in the vicinity of Ryan Junior High School, on which, will be built a regional high school dormitory.

A contribution of $100 was given to Project Pin, and Tim Wallis was appointed to represent FNA on the Fairbanks North Star Borough's Overall Economic Development Board.