The University of Alaska-Fairbanks is seeking applicants for a tenure-track teaching position in social work/human services at the Assistant Professor level beginning in the fall of 1987. This is a field position located in a rural regional center.
Regional centers are communities of approximately 2500 residents that serve clusters of smaller native villages within a radius of up to 300 miles.
The position offers a unique and exciting opportunity to help develop a new social work/human services program directed towards the state's richly diverse multi-cultural rural populations. To meet this challenge, field faculty should have a commitment to rural education with emphasis on establishing and maintaining intensive working relationships with students, and scholarly promise with an appreciation for the importance of applied research. Must also be willing to travel throughout rural Alaska in small planes.

Qualifications: M.S.W. with two years post-masters practice experience and the ability to teach both lower and upper division courses including social work and human services practice. Preference given to applicants with university teaching experience and work experience with rural Alaskan Native or in other cross-cultural, rural settings. A doctorate in social work or related field also preferred. Salary range (9 months): $8,140-$8,332.
Salary reflects the higher cost of living in rural Alaska.

Please send vita and names of three references in Gerald S. Berman, Ph.D., Chairperson of Search Committee, Department of Behavioral Sciences and Human Services, University of Alaska-Fairbanks, Fairbanks, Alaska 99775-1386. Application must be postmarked by April 30 to be considered.

The University of Alaska is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer and educational institution. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Your application for employment with the University of Alaska may be subject to Public Disclosure.

Notice is given that the State Board of Education, under authority vested by AS 14.07.060, proposes to adopt and amend regulations in Title 4 of the Alaska Administrative Code, dealing with teacher certification and school district funding communities and attendance centers, to implement AS 14.20.020 and interpret AS 14.07.060, 14.17.100 and 14.07.170, as follows:

- 1) 4 AAC 12 is proposed to be amended by changing the requirements for cer-tification and endorsement as a superintendent; and
- 2) 4 AAC 09 is proposed to be amended by establishing attendance centers and specific communities for funding and reporting purposes under the Public School Foundation Program for fiscal years beginning after June 30, 1987.

Notice is given that comments may be made in writing to the Commissioner's Office, 801 West 10 Street, P.O. Box F, Juneau, Alaska 99811, before 4:30 p.m. on April 27, 1987.

This action is not expected to require an increased appropriation.

Copies of the proposed regulations may be obtained by writing to the Commissioner of Education, P.O. Box F, Juneau, Alaska 99811.

The State Board of Education, upon its own motion or at the instance of any interested person, may thereafter adopt these or other proposals dealing with the same subject matter without further notice or may decide to take no action on them.
