

Louise Williams named for honor

Lisa Louise Williams, daughter of Frank O. and Mabel Williams Jr. of Sitka, has been selected as an Outstanding Young Woman of America for 1986, according to the Outstanding Young Women of American organization's Montgomery, Ala., headquarters.

Williams is finishing her studies at Central Washington College as a business administration/accounting major this year.

She is a member of Huna Totem Corp., Sealaska Corp. and Sitka Alaska Native Sisterhood, and she is enrolled in the Tlingit-Haida Central Council, Sitka Chapter.