

Sec. Udall's Action Shock Tyonek Folks

It was very shocking to hear that the Interior Sec. turned down the Native Land Claims bill after all was said at his meeting in Alaska recently.

Native leaders as well as the State of Alaska and a representative from the Interior Secretary's office put many many hours work on the claims bill.

Leaders from far up north risk their lives daily in behalf of other natives concerned just to be turned down.

Everyone asks why, but no one knows just what the Secretary is up to.

At any rate Alaskan natives won't stop for the Secretary or any one else.
