

Honorary Doctorate For Rev. Dr. Soboleff

Six distinguished men will receive honorary doctorate degrees next Monday at the University of Alaska's 46th commencement exercises at 10:00 a.m.

Rev. Dr. Walter A. Soboleff, a Tlingit Indian, will be one of them. He is also the Grand President of the Alaska Native Brotherhood.

Other doctorate recipients will be: William C. Herrington, M. Wilfred Goding, Joseph H. FitzGerald, Dr. Lawrence Irving and Keith B. Mather.

A Baccalaureate service for the University of Alaska Class of 1968 will be held at 2 p.m., Sunday, May 19, in the Patty Building gymnasium on campus.

The Rev. Dr. Walter A. Soboleff will deliver the baccalaureate address, "A Kingly Responsibility." He is an evangelist for the Presbytery of Alaska and grand president of the Alaska Native Brotherhood.

The Rev. Bill P. White, pastor of the Church of God, Ketchikan, will offer the invocation and the Rev. William Heynen, pastor of Trinity Christian Reformed Church, Anchorage, will give the benediction.

Music for the program will be provided by the Choir of the North, directed by Prof. Charles W. Davis, and by Mrs. Charlotte Marrow, organist.

Marshals for the procession and recessional will be

Rev. Dr. Walter A. Soboleff

William R. Cashen, marshal of the university, and Professors Mary Belle Allen, Fred C. Dean, James E. Morrow and L. Gerald Swartz.

Prof. Jean-Paul Billard will play selections on the James E. Barrack Memorial Carillon before the processional.

After the service, the University of Alaska Alumni Association will honor graduating seniors at a reception in the Patty Building foyer.

The university's commencement exercises will be held at 10 a.m., Monday, May 20, in the Patty Building.
