

Carnival Season

Fairbanks first carnival of the season will open at the Tanana Valley Fairgrounds over Memorial Day weekend as the Bonanzaland Midway plays a four day "Spring Into Summer Holiday Carnival."

Rides, concessions, entertainment and fun will be on the program during the week end. Being planned are stage shows, teen dances, amateur hour, kiddie shows, battle of the bands, prizes and many other events.

There will be no gate charge for the carnival, admission to the Fairgrounds will be free. Picnic areas are available for family and group picnics.
