

John Rader On Vigorous Campaign

The vigorous pace of the Rader Campaign intensified Tuesday into marathon proportions.

Rader accompanied by veteran bush pilot and supporter Fred Notti, took off from Lake Hood in Rader's vintage Super Cub.

The campaigners are scheduled to stop at over 100 villages and cities during the next two and one-half weeks.

This first week of the Rader campaign marathon will concentrate in the Bethel and Western Alaska areas.

Friday Rader and Notti will campaign from Bethel to Fairbanks where Rader will attend and speak to the Democratic Club Banquet this evening.

Saturday Bob Parsons will accompany the Rader Campaign on a swing to Big Delta, Tok and points in between. They return to Fairbanks late Saturday night.

Sunday morning Rader and Notti will again head for the villages along Alaska's River Systems.

Before departing Rader

(Continued on page 7)

John Rader . . .

(Continued from page 4)

said, "This is the kind of campaigning I love. We are making numerous appearances and will have the opportunity to talk with a great many Alaskans and discuss the issues."