

Humphrey Appoints Dr. William Carmack

WASHINGTON—Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey recently announced his selection of Dr. William R. Carmack as Executive Director of the newly-formed National Council on Indian Opportunity.

Vice President Humphrey is Chairman of the Council, which was established on March 6, 1968, by an Executive Order of the President.

The Council is made up of representatives of six departments which conduct Indian programs, the Director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, and six Indian leaders named earlier by President Johnson.

For the past two years, Dr. Carmack has served as Assistant Commissioner for Community Services of the Bureau of Indian Affairs. For two years before that, he served as Administrative Assistant to Senator Fred Harris (D-Okla.).

Bureau to seek other means of ending the animals' lives.

At least five different methods have been discussed in preliminary meetings and several will be tried during the annual harvest this year. The task force's goal is to recommend a method that will satisfy the humanitarian requirements for dispatching the animals within the physical conditions existing on the Pribilof Islands.
