

Yes You Can!

Just like Orville Huntington, students across Alaska have achieved scholastic excellence. They are your classmates, people you know from your hometown. If they can excel so can you. Stay in school, work hard, you can achieve excellence!

College: University of Alaska, Fairbanks

Major: Fish and Wildlife Biology

Goals: To work with the Native village people to foster an understanding of wildlife management issues.

Honors: 1990 recipient of the Outstanding Student Award in Cross Cultural Communications. Grade point average 4.0. Awarded the Doyon Foundation Scholarship for Academic Achievement.

Doyon Foundation

Higher Education and Vocational Scholarships and Grants

Guidelines for Scholarships and Grants

The Doyon Foundation offers financial support to students pursuing their education beyond high school. This support is through its educational scholarships and grants program.

Eligibility

To obtain a Doyon Foundation award, One of the following criteria must be met:

- enrollee to Doyon, Limited
- direct descendant of an enrollee, defined as their children, natural and adopted;

AND

- enrolled or accepted for admittance to an accredited college, university, or technical school.

Additional requirements for technical training grants:

- High School graduate or have successfully attained a GED certificate (please enclose);

Additional requirements for higher education grants and scholarships:

- Must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.0. Competitive scholarships have different requirements.

Part time students (6-11 credits) are eligible for Doyon Foundation grants.

Application Deadlines

complete application packages must be POSTMARKED OR DELIVERED by April 30, for the following fall semester, and by November 15, for the following spring semester.

For more information contact:

The Doyon Foundation
201 First Avenue
Fairbanks, Alaska 99701
or call 452-4755
or
1-800-478-4755
(Alaska Only)

J. B. GOTISTEIN & CO., INC. has provided this advertisement to say "We know you can" to students across the state. Over the next several months we will be highlighting students and offering information about scholarship programs in the interest of promoting scholastic excellence.