

BE A GOOD SPORT!

Come to a public hearing and tell the State of Alaska what it can do to help amateur sports in Anchorage.

WHEN: Wednesday, May 16 at 7:30 PM

WHERE: Teleconferenced in Legislative Information Offices at Barrow, Bethel, Dillingham, Kotzebue and Nome.

SPONSOR: The Alaska Amateur Sports Authority (AASA)

PURPOSE: To take testimony on the needs of amateur sports in Alaska and recommendations for the structure and membership of sports advisory groups to AASA.

For more information about the hearing, please call 274-2010.

GRAND OPENING Alaska Budget Motel

DOWNTOWN ANCHORAGE
(Near Alaska Native Hospital)

LOWEST RATES IN DOWNTOWN

- | | |
|--|-----------------------------------|
| ★ Free Cable TV
(44 Channels & HBO) | ★ Free Local Calls |
| ★ Clean & Comfortable | ★ Direct Dial Telephone |
| ★ New Furniture | ★ Wake-up and Message
Services |
| ★ Singles, Doubles, &
Family Suits | ★ Free Parking |
| | ★ On City Bus Route |

Open 24 Hours For Reservations & Check-Ins

545 E. 4th Avenue

SPECIAL RATE

Anchorage, Alaska 99501

(907) 277-0088

$39⁰⁰
+ tax

Meet the board. . .

Debbie Fullenwider, president of Eklutna Inc., is affiliated with many other organizations, but she still finds time to serve as a member of the Tundra Times Board of Directors.

Fullenwider said she first accepted a position on the board because she knew the newspaper was having difficulties. She also said she appreciated what Howard Rock was trying to accomplish when he started the paper in 1962.

When asked what Native issues were most important to her, Fullenwider said that better education is needed for Alaska Natives.

Fullenwider is an Eklutna Inc. and Cook Inlet Region Inc. shareholder and lives in Eagle River with her husband. She has three children.

