ARCTIC NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

The U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service is holding two workshops in order to develop management alternatives in advance of writing a draft Comprehensive Conservation Plan.

Come prepared to contribute to the development of alternatives:

1:00-4:30 & 7:00 p.m.
Tues., January 20, 1987
Federal Bldg. & Courthouse
Conference Room
101 12th Ave., Fairbanks

1:30-4:30 & 7:00 p.m.
Thurs., January 22, 1987
USFWS Regional Office
First Floor Conference Room
1011 E. Tudor Rd., Anchorage

The workshops are to assist the Service in identifying a broad range of alternatives about how best to manage both the fish and wildlife habitat and the use of all the resources on the Refuge.

These alternatives will provide the framework of a comprehensive plan for this 19-million-acre refuge.

For more information, call either
786-3393 or 456-0250.
