

First Alaska Native Basketball Classic to be Feb. 13-16

The Alaska Native Sports Association will hold its first Alaska Native Basketball Classic Feb. 13-16.

All events will be at Central Junior High School in Anchorage.

Half-time entertainment will include events such as Eskimo Olympic exhibitions, performances by the Greatland Traditional Dancers and more.

The tournament is co-sponsored by Anchorage Parks and Recreation.

The tournament will host eight teams, but will be limited to "C" Division teams or equivalent. Because the tournament will be held during Fur Rondy, teams entered cannot play in the Rondy Classic.

The tournament fee is $100. Communities expected to participate are Anchorage, Sitka, Sand Point, King Cove, Tyonek and Minto.

Those who want more information may contact Eric Morrison at 277-7043, or 563-6752 after 5 p.m.