Administrative assistant—primary responsibility is conduction of the day to day operations of the city office in the absence of the city administrator. The administrative assistant will serve as the resource person for the answers to non-routine questions demanding immediate attention. On occasion, it is anticipated that the administrative assistant will represent the city administrator at meetings with local state or federal agencies. The wide base of responsibility requires that this individual be well informed on all aspects of city government activities and possess technical skills in the mechanics of grant application processes. Supervisory responsibilities will include monitoring the clerical support workload and giving direction to activities in the various city departments.
Send resume to John Guinn, Mayor, City of Bethel, Box 537, Bethel, Alaska 99559.

The city of Bethel is now accepting applications for the position of city administrator. Must have municipal administrative background. Appointed by a seven member council elected at large. Knowledge of state and federal funding sources is required. Please send resume and letters of recommendation to John P. Guinn, Mayor, City of Bethel, Box 537, Bethel, Alaska 99559.

"From time to time, the Bureau of Indian Affairs has vacancies for clerk-typists, elementary teachers, engineers, light plant mechanics and maintenance men." For qualification requirements, immediate vacancies, and how to apply, write Personnel Officer, Bureau of Indian Affairs, P.O. Box 3-8000, Juneau, Alaska.

bingles

Way back when, you could do a lot of dealing with a bagful of beads and bingles. Many a business proposition was settled by rattle, glitter and pure persuasion. It doesn't work that way anymore. Today's legal tender is Cash-American and NBA offers you ways to invest it, divest it, endow it, increase it and protect it. We can do more things for your money than you can imagine including renting you a safe deposit box for your beads and bingles.
