

It's carnival time in Juneau

The Alaska Native Brotherhood Grand Camp scholarship committee is hosting a carnival Friday from 4 to 9 p.m. at the Alaska Native Brotherhood Hall in Juneau.

The carnival will be for the entire family, according to Chairman Ozzie Sheakley.

"Youngsters will enjoy participating in activities such as the fish pond, cake walk and face painting. Others may test their athletic skills at events such as the football toss and dart throw," he said, adding that there will also be prize bingo games.

Proceeds raised from the carnival will be used to assist organization members and students with higher education expenses.
