Arctic Education Foundation

Arctic Education Foundation is a non-profit tax exempt organization that was created by ASRC. AEF provides Scholarships to those ASRC shareholders who are pursuing a 2 or 4 year degree.

Scholarships are awarded based on Financial need. Scholarships generally will be used to cover basic college costs of tuition and fees, room and board and books for each term. Students are encouraged to apply for other scholarships that they may be eligible for. Scholarships are awarded each fall and spring.

Application procedure:

- a) Complete application form
- b) Send in a copy of your transcripts
- c) Send in a letter of acceptance from the college.

- d) Send in 2 letters of recommendations.
- e) For returning students, most recent grades must be turned in.

Eligibility Requirements:

- a) Be an ASRC shareholder
- b) Be enrolled fulltime in an accredited school.
- c) Must have received a 2.0 or better grade point average in high school or previous school.
- d) Must maintain a 2.0 or better to renew his/her scholarship for next term.

There is a one semester grace period where if a student does not receive a 2.0 or better, he/she is given another semester to continue and work on his/her improvement. There will also be "Merit Scholarships" awarded this year to recognize those students who have achieved a 3.0 or better in high school and continuing students.

AEF accepts collect calls from students and prospective students. AEF also provides summer jobs for college students. AEF assists those who need financial aid information and need help in working on financial aid packages of the student. If you have any questions, please call me at 852-8633 in Barrow or drop by my office (1st floor ASRC bldg.)

AEF also works with the BIA office in Anchorage and Fairbanks for other grants either for college or training.
