

New Officers for Guard

ANCHORAGE—The Alaska Army, National Guard's Military Academy recently graduated its second class of officer candidates.

Graduation ceremonies were held in the Post Chapel at Fort Richardson. During the ceremonies six candidates received certificates denoting their completion of Officer Candidate School and also were commissioned second lieutenants in the Army National Guard and Army Reserve. Later gold bars were pinned on their shoulders by wives, sweethearts and friends.

The new officers are:

1st Scout Battalion

Lawrence Moody Etageak, Unalakleet.

3rd Scout Battalion

Edwin Howard Douglas, Shungnak; Raymond Woods, Shungnak; Ben Foxglove, Jr., Selawick; Tommy P. Ballot, Selawick, and Billy Charles Bailey, Jr., Kotzebue.

5th Battalion

Verne Edwin Rupright, Anchorage.
