

Youth leadership

COLLEGE--The annual youth leadership workshop sponsored by the University of Alaska's Cooperative Extension Service has been set for July 30-Aug. 3 on the Fairbanks campus.

Activities will include sessions on building self esteem, parliamentary procedure, communications, public speaking and learning to write and publish newspapers and tape radio broadcasts. Further information is available from all local Cooperative Extension Service offices or Mrs. Maureen Holden at the university office here.