

Leave your gun at the border

WHITEHORSE, Y.T.--Canadian Customs officials announced Thursday that effective June 15, American travellers will no longer be able to carry their handguns through Canada, even when sealed. Violators will be subject to seizure of the weapon and the vehicle used to transport it--and they, themselves, may also be prosecuted.