What Saith the Scriptures?

"What seek ye" my friend, as you stand on the uncertain brink of eternity? Are you leaning out to grasp a little pleasure, fame or wealth, little realizing that this precarious spot gives way to the solemn consequences of a lost eternity? "What shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" (Mark 8:36) God's word to you is, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." (Matthew 6:33) Go in for the world and you will likely lose what you are seeking to grasp, and your soul too.

There is a Rock that you can stand upon which can never give way. That Rock is the Lord Jesus Christ, in Whom you can now have eternal life by trusting in Him as your own Saviour. When standing on this Rock you need not grasp at anything as all the desires of the heart are satisfied. There are pleasures for evermore in Christ, pleasures that cannot be rudely broken in upon by the hand of death. There are "honours" in Christ, for those who believe on Him are to live and reign with Him eternally.
