Joel Tritt Gets Wish, 200 Library Bookson Way, 1000 More Later

Young Joel Tritt, 11, of Arctic Village, has realized his wish and he is getting 200 books from the village library for which he appealed in the March 28 issue of the Tundra Times.

Two hundred books are not all he's going to get either and a lot more are coming in the fall.

"We'll send some more. We'll send a thousand books and we'll pay the postage," said Dr. Paul Jensen while visiting Tundra Times last week.

Dr. Jensen is the Professor of

"I was reading the story about Joel Tritt last week in the Tundra Times last week at my home in Oregon and I told my wife, We'll send those 200 books to Joel," said Dr. Jensen.

He said the books had already been packaged but he had not made up his mind where to send them but after reading about Joel Tritt, he decided.

In his letter to Joel, Dr. send more."

Jensen wrote:

"In the Tundra Times I have read about your need of library books. Our local Rotary Club and school districts have sent more than 20,000 library books to villages in Northern Alaska.

"I am happy to send you 200 books for your library. Most of them are for children. They are all used, but in good condition. I hope you will enjoy reading these books. In the fall we shall

Miller last week announced that orders had been signed to set into motion the incorporation of three fourth class cities in Alaska

Secretary of State Robert W. Ward's signature on the Order and Notice of Election will affect the communities of Huslia, Kaltag and Grayling.

Petitions for council members. who will be elected at the same time as the incorporation election, to be held on May 27, must be received by the Secretary of State by 4:30 p.m.,

These three communities are the first of as many as 60 that will be petitioning to the Local Affairs Agency, Office of the Governor, for incorporation.
