

Alaska photo contest entries sought

Wildlife or landscapes, maritime, Native themes and other Alaska subjects will be accepted for the Territorial Artists 1995 limited edition print program and membership drive. The program is for those "just getting started," and those wanting increased exposure.

The Association sponsors group shows, competitions and other activities to enhance the work of artist and photographers, including the limited edition print program. The Association works freely with galleries and other artist groups and welcomes their announcements for inclusion in its newsletter. Direct all inquires to Territorial Artists Association, PO Box 211287, Auke Bay, AK 99821.
