

Alaskaland to Open Tomorrow

The exciting Alaskaland opens officially tomorrow and will begin receiving visitors at 11:00 a.m. when the opening ceremonies begin.

Included in the ceremonies will be a color guard and band. Immediately following, the "Garden of the Patriots" historical marker will be dedicated and permanently placed.

Following the dedication, Mayor H. A. Boucher of Fairbanks will conduct a grand walking tour of the Alaskaland, last year's centennial exposition grounds.
