

Brother's Wedding—

Mable's First Visit to New York

Charming Eskimo mother, Mrs. Mable Hopson of Fairbanks, formerly of Barrow, is happily sightseeing in New York City this week before she attends the marriage of her brother Charlie Brower tomorrow in that great city.

Charlie is marrying Miss Janet Dolan, a public health nurse in Ulster County in New York state. Miss Dolan formerly worked in Public Health Service hospital in Tanana. She also worked in the hospital in Barrow where she met Charlie Brower.

Miss Dolan's home is Wallkill, New York.

Charlie is presently employed by the Quality Control Department of the Linear Corporation in Englewood, Calif. He attended Mt. Edgecumbe High School and later was trained by Radio Corporation of America (RCA) on electronics. He was in the U.S. Navy for four years.

Mable left for New York last Tuesday on her first visit there.

"They wanted me to come early so they could show me around in New York City," Mable said.

She is the wife of Sam Hopson. Sam has been employed by Wien Consolidated Airlines for 17 years most of that time in Fairbanks. Hopsons have five children one of whom, Brower Michael Hopson, will be attending University of Alaska at College near Fairbanks.

Both Mable and Sam are from prominent Barrow families. Mable's grandfather is the late and famous King of the Arctic, Charles Brower. Her parents are Marie and David K. Brower and her uncle is the well known Thomas P. Brower, all of Barrow.

Mable said Charlie and Janet will probably make their home California.
