

Tlingit TV Man

Walter Porter, well known Tlingit Indian, originally from Yakutat, has written to friends in the Anchorage area, to say that he will be taking a leave of absence from his job with the Hawaii 5-0 TV program in Honolulu this summer to return to Anchorage and Yakutat for a visit.

Walter has been Jack Lord's stand-in, and a feature player on the highly rated CBS series for the last two years. He will be a guest of John Shively, Rural CAP Deputy Director while in the Anchorage area.