

Grant to Provide Legal Services In Remote Areas

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Congressman Howard W. Pollock announced that the Office of Economic Opportunity has awarded a $469,023 grant to provide legal services in remote areas for the next twelve months.

The Rural Alaska Community Action Program, Inc. is the recipient of the grant, which is to be administered through the Alaska Legal Services Corporation.

Nine attorneys, through four major offices located in Anchorage, Fairbanks, Ketchikan, and Juneau, will service outposts manned by its attorneys in Bethel, Fort Yukon, Kotzebue, Nome, Barrow, Galena and Dillingham.
