

UAF students to host Native festival of arts Feb. 18-20

FAIRBANKS — The annual Festival of Native Arts at the University of Alaska Fairbanks will be held Feb. 18-20, 1988, at UAF.

The festival is organized by UAF students interested in preserving Alaskan cultural heritage. It attracts Alaska Native dancers, storytellers, craftspeople, artists and an audience from around the state.

Those interested in volunteering to help with the activities are urged to call Max Toddhunter at 474-6889 in Fairbanks.
