

Don Young named to head summit budget panel

WASHINGTON — U.S. House leadership recently announced that Congressman Don Young, R-Alaska, has been named to the Conference Committee for the Budget Reconciliation Bill.

The panel was to meet to resolve the specifics of the budget summit agreement which was worked out recently by White House and congressional negotiators.

Young was to serve on the portion of the conference which has jurisdiction over interior, merchant marine and fisheries issues.