

Nominations sought for Alaskan of the Year Award

Nominations for the Alaskan of the Year Award are being accepted until Nov. 30. The award goes to an outstanding living Alaskan, based on the person's contributions to Alaska over the years.

The awards will be presented during a ceremony at the Sheraton Anchorage Hotel March 27, 1987. Nominations should be accompanied by a brief biographical sketch and statement of achievements, and they can be sent to Gordon J. Zerbetz, 900 W. 54th Ave., Anchorage 99518.
